WASHINGTON POST (USA) 14th July 2004

Buitenverwaching Sauvignon blanc (Constantia) 2003: Excellent in every respect, from the citrus and melon aromatics with light herb and grass edging, to medium-bodied fruit with impressive depth, to the long finish poised between fruity generosity and acidic edging. This is superb stuff.

Observer –UK 20th March 2005

Consistently one of the New world’s best Sauvignons, this cool climate white from the suburbs of Cape Town is as crisp as a freshly starched shirt, with pellucid gosseberry and cut grass aromas, and tingly acidity

Veritas 2005 – S.A. Wine Show
